Hello,

I am contacting the CAMFT today as a parent and a school teacher, and I am asking that you please not restrict referrals or access to therapists who allow for change in unwanted same-sex attractions and behavior. As a teacher I witnessed this dilemma in one of my students. Living in California, the young man was not able to get the help he so desperately needed and wanted. Witnessing his frustration and anguish has made this issue very personal to me. I would ask the organization to also voice opposition to HR 2450, which would deny freedom to everyone who wants to seek the help they have discerned they need. It is also a gross violation of parental rights and of religious freedom.

I thank you in advance for supporting us all by not placing unnecessary and damaging restrictions on people who are simply seeking the type of help they desire for themselves and their children.

To whom it may concern:

I have a Masters in Social Work from CSU Sacramento, Health Concentration, class of 1988. I have worked with clients and friends over the years with a variety of needs and issues including AIDS patients, and those with unwanted same sex attractions and behaviors who asked for help in these areas and referrals to appropriately trained therapists who would assist them with their stated goals.

I urge the CAMFT Board NOT TO take action that would RESTRICT REFERRALS to CAMFT THERAPISTS who assist clients asking for help with unwanted same-sex attractions and behavior.

I urge the Board NOT TO DISCRIMINATE AGAINST CLIENTS who desire therapist assisted sexual orientation change to help them live consistently with their faith or morals. The focus should be on allowing clients seeking this kind of help to have access to therapists that can help them and to allow them to make these kind of therapy choices.

I urge the Board to OPPOSE HR2450.

I urge the Board to ALLOW FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND ADVERTISING about Sexual Orientation Change Efforts in its publications.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.
