CAMFT EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION GRANT APPLICATION 2019

Application must be received by January 4, 2019

The Educational Foundation Grant is designed licensed or pre-licensed individuals in the field of marriage and family therapy who either individually or as a group need financial assistance to engage in a project or activity which will enhance the knowledge, skills and abilities of members of the profession, including but not limited to:

- A training event
- A collaborative event with a university or group of clinicians
- A research project

Applicants are encouraged (but not required) to collaborate with other entities and sources of funding, so that the CAMFT Educational Foundation funds are used to leverage other grants, if appropriate. The CAMFT Educational Foundation grant is intended to provide a benefit to the profession and is not intended for personal gain or benefit.
